MAKE LEARNING RELEVANT/2022
AIC RWANDA PROJECT NUMBER 20221003 GENERAL REPORT

1. INTRODUCTION

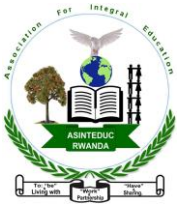

ASINTEDUC (Association for integral Education) is a Non-Governmental Organization and member of Pan – African Union of Peace Builders (PAUPB) created by initiative of laureate of University of Peace in Africa (UPA). It is aimed to strive for the social educational values: to - “be” and living with, “work” and partnership, “have” and sharing.

Our Organization has done different projects in the past including “Back to school campaign” on which this project inspired from. Through our “Back to school campaign” we achieved to bring back children at school, and we are animating them in group as well as their parents. Children’s group is named as “URUNGANO” and parents’ group named as “INYOBOKABUZIMA”. “URUNGANO” is Kinyarwanda name means “Generation with same thinking and vision” and “INYOBOKABUZIMA” is a name comes from a verb “kuyoboka” means “to follow” and the word “ubuzima” means “life”. “URUNGANO” made by 60 kids, 37 girls and 23 boys, from Huye, Ngoma, and Tumba sectors of Huye district. The purpose of these groups is to raise awareness of parent and finding together the solutions of problems which behind children’s school dropout.

ASINTEDUC proposed this project to awaken children’s school feelings for preparedness to return to school to make learning relevant within them in favor of their better future. This report, presents the closing of project 2nd edition with two activities under AIC Rwanda funds.

2. EVENT ACTIVITIES

The event was made by two activities. The first one was to assist “URUNGANO” in obtaining the essential hygiene supplies they require from their families, such as washing shoes, washing soap, body lotion, and cortex for teenage girls. The second was to assist “INYOBOKABUZIMA” as parents' Saving Internal and Lending Community (SILC) in their economic recovery following the effects of COVID-19.

The preceding materials were presented following discussion at the first event, which took place on December 10, 2022, at the ASINTEEDUC office. The second activity was submitting fund to parents' group for their economic recovery.

3. RECOMMENDATIONS

Basing on the project impact according to testimonies expressed during the event; ASINTEEDUC would like to present the following recommendations:

3.1. To PAUPB

ASINTEEDUC recommends that wherever is possible, Pan-African Union of Peace Builders may be a partner in all activities, trainings and holding up by continuous advocacy.

3.2. To AIC Rwanda

By acknowledging AIC Rwanda's great contribution for project funding, we suggest the next collaborations to succeed future editions.

3.3. To partners in education and children's right

We would like to call up on all sponsoring community organizations and individuals who are interested in education and children's right, to get in contact with us directly for any further information, opinion, and support in favor of social educational changes.

4. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, we are confident that assisting kids today is creating a better world for everyone. Whatever we may do for them, we demonstrate how much we regard and value their rights. They must be loved, protected, respected, and valued.
